Re: MUR 5463

Dear Mr. Gordon:

I am in receipt of your letter dated June 22, 2011, regarding additional information filed by the complainants to certain allegations made in their original complaint to the Federal Election Commission. Consistent with our response to the allegations in the original complaint, the allegations made in the additional information are false and are based on nothing more than conjecture. Furthermore, the complainants failed to allege specific violations of federal campaign finance laws by Jack Antaramian, the Antaramian Family Trust, Antaramian Development Corporation, Mona Antaramian, David Antaramian, or Yasmeen Wilson.

As we stated in our original response, Jack Antaramian is a real estate developer and has, on a number of occasions, partnered with the complainants to invest in real estate. As a result of a failed investment, the complainants have filed multiple lawsuits against Jack and the Antaramian Development Corporation of Naples. The issues raised in the additional information filed with the Commission are currently being litigated. Filing this additional information with the Commission is simply another attempt by the complainants to disparage Jack's name and reputation, cost him money in legal fees, and generally harass him.

Money Laundering/Wire Fraud

This issue was addressed in our response to the original complaint. Allegations in both the complaint and the additional information are baseless, factually incorrect and, furthermore, allege no specific violation of federal campaign finance laws. The funds Jack Antaramian uses to make political contributions are his and his alone. We ask that this issue be dismissed.

Mortgage Fraud

As with the previous issue, this allegation is baseless and without merit. The additional information filed with the Commission alleges no specific violation of federal campaign finance laws. We ask the Commission to dismiss this allegation.

Again, the allegations alleged against Jack Antaramian in the additional information filed with the Commission are speculative, inaccurate, misleading and allege no specific violations of the federal campaign finance laws. We again request that the Commission dismiss this matter.

Sincerely,
